Ontario Disability Employment Network

A professional body of employment service providers united to increase employment opportunities for people who have a disability

Membership year is from April 1st, 2017 – March 31st, 2018. New members that join after October 1st, 2017 will have their fees calculated at 60% of the full rate and prorated based on the numbers of months remaining in the Membership year.

Membership Types

Full Membership

Full Membership shall be available to organizations in Ontario operating employment services for persons with a disability facing barriers to employment. For each paid membership, an organization may have one voting representative. Voting representatives shall be members of the staff of the organization.

Full members will have full voting rights and privileges; be eligible to be elected to the Board; sit on Committees; and, access to the 'member only' website login and the information and resources contained within.

Associate Membership

(e.g. Community Living Ontario, CACL, CMHA-ON, ODSP Action Coalition)

Like-minded organizations who share the Network's goals and objectives. Associate members shall be without a vote.

Single Membership

An individual who shares the Network's goals and objectives and does not qualify under other membership categories. Individual members shall be without a vote. Individual members may not hold office, but may serve on committees or task forces of the Network.

Corporate Membership

(e.g. TD Canada Trust, Bell Canada, OLG, Tim Horton's Corporate)

Membership shall be available to corporate businesses having common interests and aims with the Network. Corporate members shall be without a vote. Corporate members cannot hold office, but may serve on committees.

* Please note: Membership is a privilege and does not include the right to promote or market your organization or any of its events, activities or services to the broader ODEN membership without prior approval. All marketing and promotion of events, activities or services must be submitted for approval to ODEN and conform to its mandate, mission and standards of practice.

While ODEN values the partnership it has with its members, organizations cannot presume to infer a partnership when promoting organizational activities.
